

Maite Hontelé & Ramón Valle

What started with an invitation for a one-time duo concert turned out to be a bull's eye. This resulted in a tour of various European venues and an album recording in Havana, Cuba.

Maite and Ramón have been a musical duo for almost two years now. With the Cuban musical language in mind and in their bodies, they musically challenge each other again and again. Together they experience total freedom on stage. Their shared love of melody is the common thread in their symbiotic collaboration.

In addition to being virtuosos on their respective instruments, Maite and Ramón always strive for the notes that touch the soul directly. That is why every rehearsal, every concert, is a new adventure.

Both Maite and Ramón are world known established musicians with several awards on their names.

Maite is a hudge star in Colombia where she lived for several years and played with artists like Oscar D' León. One of her hits "Nochesita" has over 32 million views on youtube.
